

The Passy Press[®]

Letters to the Editor

From: George Cadwalader <gcadwalader@undisclosed.com>
To: Nick Gardiner <enpg@thepassypress.com>
Sent: 10 November 2018 at 20:55:18 CET
Subject: Cyber Essay, November 2018

Dear Sir,

Although I know little of such matters, it seems to me one common sense response to intellectual property theft by the Chinese would be to reduce the dollar value of allowable imports from that country by an amount pegged to the value of the intellectual property it steals.

You might suggest that to your writer as an example of the kind of specifics that would strengthen the essay.

Sincerely,

George Cadwalader

George Cadwalader is a former officer of Marines, educator, lobsterman and writer of fiction and non-fiction.